The following criteria to undertake Part 66 external examinations at the KLMUK Engineering Technical College applies:

- All examinations are conducted under the Technical College Part 147 Approval Reference UK.147.0012 and are compliant with the Part 147. A.205 – Basic Knowledge Examinations.
- Examinations will be conducted without the use of training notes.
- Examination bookings are made via email on: examteam@klmuk.com and must be made at least 5 working days prior to the examination required date in order to confirm your place.
- Examinations are conducted twice monthly, normally the Friday of the 2nd week and 4th week of the month commencing at 09.00hrs and 13.30hrs. (see examination timetable).
- Booking is operated on a 'first come, first served' basis. Please note, places cannot be confirmed until booking forms and payment has been received.
- A maximum of two module examinations may be taken in one examination sitting except for modules 11, 13 & 15, where only one of these examinations will be allowed per sitting.
- Cost per exam is £40, with Module 7A essays combined. This cost includes production of certificate(s). Payment terms are cash, debit / credit card or cheque, payable to 'KLMUK Engineering Ltd'.
- Return your completed booking form, with payment as required, to confirm your place. Payment on the day of examination is not permitted. This payment is non-refundable upon cancellation. Requests to change dates/times of exam sittings will be only be considered with significant mitigating circumstances.
- Photographic identification must be presented prior to sitting any of the examinations.
- Examination results will normally be available the following week. In the case of essay examinations it may be longer due to the availability of the module subject matter expert, in which case you will be notified of the result at a later date. Candidates will be notified via email.
- Certificates will be issued upon request by the individual.
- Copies of certificates and results will be kept on the Technical College files for a minimum of 10 years.

GENERAL EXAMINATION REQUIREMENTS

ATTENDANCE AT THE EXAMINATIONS

Candidates should be present at the examination centre at least 20 minutes before the scheduled time for the commencement of each examination sitting.

Late arrivals will NOT be allowed to enter the examination after the examination has started.

All candidates are required to present photo Identification (ID) on the exam day.

EXAMINATION DECLARATION:

Part-66, Appendix II, 1.11 states "A failed module may not be re-taken for at least 90 days following the date of the failed module examination." With the exception case of a Part-147 approved maintenance training organisation which conducts a course of retraining tailored to the failed subjects in the particular module when the failed module may be re-taken after 30 days.

Part-66, Appendix II, 1.13 states "The maximum number of consecutive attempts for each module is three. Further sets of three attempts are allowed with a 12 month waiting period between sets."

You are required to make these declarations on the application form prior to submission.

Personal coats, bags, briefcases, etc. may be placed at the front/rear of examination room, under direction of the invigilating officer.

Whilst every attempt is made to ensure reasonable comfort in examination rooms, KLM Technical College cannot be held responsible for extraneous noise or for any breakdown or fluctuation in heating, lighting or ventilation.

Candidates are advised that the 'no smoking' regulations must be observed.

MATERIALS FOR EXAMINATION

Candidates are not allowed to use any loose paper other than that provided at the examination.

All papers issued are to be returned with answer sheet to the invigilator on completion.

You will be required to provide your own blue or black ink pens, no other colours or pencils are allowed for completing any examination papers.

The use of calculators is NOT permitted.

Silence is to be observed in the examination room at all times.

Alarms, smart watches, portable electronic devices and any sound generating devices are not permitted.

Mobile telephones, pagers etc. must be switched OFF and left with the candidate's personal belongings.

Any candidate who is found cheating, or attempts to remove unauthorised examination materials from the room, will be liable to disqualification from those examinations which have been taken and, subject to EU regulations, will not be allowed to take any further examinations for 12 months.
